Whitehall, July 21.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Precentor, and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of St. David's, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Precentor, and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Precentor, and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David, and the Clergy of the whole Dioceſe, beg Permiſſion to lay at your Majeſty's Royal Feet our warmeſt Expreſſions of Gratitude for your Majeſty's parental Concern for the Happineſs of your People, conſpicuous in every Act of your Government; but more eſpecially in your vigilant Attention to the Preſervation of our happy Conſtitution, the Boaſt of theſe Iſlands, and the Envy of the World. We hold in Abhorrence thoſe ſeditious Writings, in which it has been lately vilified and traduced, and we obſerve with Pleaſure that they are univerſally received by your Majeſty's Subjects with equal Deteſtation of the Malignity by which they appear to be dictated, and Contempt of the Ignorance with which they are framed. As Miniſters of the Goſpel of Chriſt, we ſhall ever eſteem it our Duty to teach the People, that Submiſſion to the Government under which we live is one of the moſt indiſpenſible Duties of the Religion we profeſs; and, as Members of the Church of England, we hold ourſelves particularly bound to ſupport the Conſtitutional Monarchy of our Country, with the Stability of which we are ſenſible the Intereſts of the Eccleſiaſtical Eſtabliſhment are inſeparably united. We offer, Sire, our fervent Prayers to Him by whom Kings bear Rule, that your Majeſty may long reign over a loyal and grateful People, and that the Britiſh Sceptre, tranſmitted to a long Line of your Deſcendants in perpetual Succeſſion, may, with your Sovereignty, convey to them the Emulation of your princely Virtues.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedal Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Lichfield and Coventry, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Lichfield and Coventry, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Lichfield and Coventry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Lichfield and Coventry, beg Leave to expreſs our grateful Senſe of the recent Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Attention to the Welfare of your People, manifeſted in your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation.

We have obſerved, with the greateſt Concern, the various Attempts which have been made to eſtabliſh alienate the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects from that excellent Form of Government, Civil and Eccleſiaſtical, which, under the kind and merciful Providence of God, has been happily eſtabliſhed in this Kingdom. And we, who, from profeſſional Duties, are particularly engaged in the Cultivation of all thoſe mild and temporate Virtues which Chriſtianity ſo eminently cheriſhes and encourages, cannot but ſincerely lament all Diſpoſition to Riot and Tumult, from whatever Grounds it may originate.

Our eſtabliſhed Conſtitution, which has long been the Boaſt and Glory of our Country, ſeems to us to be admirably calculated to promote all wiſe, and juſt, and ſalutary Ends of Government; and at the ſame Time to ſecure to your Majeſty's Subjects every Degree of Freedom, conſiſtent with the Obligations of Morality and Religion, and the Preſervation of the Peace and Happineſs of the Community.

We truſt that your Majeſty will experience from the Civil Magiſtrates all due Exertions in thoſe Matters to which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to command their ſedulous Attention. It will be our Duty alſo to adminiſter all the Aſſiſtance in our Power, and to act, as far as we are able, in ſubſerviency to your Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions.

The beneficial Effects which we may hope to produce in this Reſpect will be derived from a diligent inculcating of the Principles and Doctrines of our Religion. Theſe will furniſh the Chriſtian Diſciple with ſtrong Reaſons for not diſturbing the mildeſt and beſt Government that ever exiſted; as well as for demeaning himſelf towards his Fellow Subjects, whatever may be their Deſcription or Rank in Civil Society, with Humility, with Moderation, and with Kindneſs.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Glouceſter, has been preſented to the King by the Honorable Captain George Cranfield Berkeley, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Glouceſter, animated with true Loyalty, and ſenſible of the manifold Bleſſings we enjoy from Civil and Religious Liberty, are happy to teſtify our Gratitude for that tender Solicitude and paternal Regard, evidently manifeſted by your Majeſty's unremitted Attention to the Intereſt and Happineſs of all your People.

We cannot but lament that the Temper of the Times rendered the Royal Proclamation neceſſary, but we truſt, under Divine Providence, that by your Majeſty's ready Diſcernment, co-operating with the Ardor and Affection of your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the wild and viſionary Projects of wanton Speculatiſts will be baffled, and their ſeditious Efforts eluded.

We likewiſe earneſtly pray, that your Majeſty's Subjects in general may ever happily experience the bleſſed Comforts and Effects, which reſult from internal Tranquillity, and by a proper Reverence to their King, a due Submiſſion to the Laws, and juſt Confidence in the Wiſdom and Integrity of Parliament, may add laſting Firmneſs and Stability to the Government and Conſtitution of their Country, and, by united Zeal for the Public Welfare, may increaſe the Luſtre and Honor of the Britiſh Crown, and the Glory and Proſperity of all your Majeſty's Dominions.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Carmarthen, has been preſented to the King by the Honorable George Talbot Rice, Repreſentative in Parliament for that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Carmarthen, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our warmeſt and moſt grateful Acknowledgements for your uniform Solicitude for the true Intereſts and Welfare of your People, and particularly for your Majeſty's late moſt gracious Proclamation. We have ſeen with Indignation the Attempts that have been made, by the Publication of ſeditious Writings, and by the Formation and Correſpondence of unwarrantable Aſſociations, tending not only to excite Diſcontent in the Minds of the People, but aiming ultimately (as we conceive) at the total Subverſion of a Conſtitution, which has for Ages been the great Boaſt of Britons, and the Admiration and Envy of ſurrounding Nations. But we are not alarmed, becauſe we are convinced that a great irreſiſtible Majority of the Nation unites with us in firm Attachment to our excellent Conſtitution, and in a grateful Senſe of the Bleſſings and unexampled Proſperity we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and benign Government; and becauſe we feel a ſettled Determination, in our ſeveral Stations and Capacities, to ſupport the Laws with Energy and Effect, to maintain and preſerve, unimpaired, the Rights of Freedom tranſmitted to us by our Anceſtors, and to reſiſt, if the Neceſſity ſhall ſo require, at the Riſk of whatever is moſt dear and valuable to us, any raſh and wicked Attempts, tending to alienate the Affections of your Majeſty's Subjects from the Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and excellent Government.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Radnor, has been preſented to the King by John Lewis, Eſq; Sheriff of that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Radnor.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Radnor, beg Leave to lay lay before your Throne the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of a loyal and affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, and to expreſs our Gratitude for the repeated Inſtances of your Majeſty's Vigilance and Attention to the Proſperity and Happineſs of your People, and particularly for your late Proclamation.

Fully ſenſible of the innumerable Bleſſings we enjoy under our moſt excellent and invaluable Conſtitution, we ſhould deem ourſelves unworthy of the Name of Britons were we not to expreſs our higheſt Veneration for that Conſtitution, eſtabliſhed by our Anceſtors, and which it is our Duty to protect, and our earneſt Wiſh to tranſmit, unimpaired, to the lateſt Poſterity.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we view with Indignation the Attempts of factious and turbulent Men, whoſe Endeavours are alone calculated to deprive us of the real Bleſſings we derive from your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and from a Conſtitution which it is the Pride of every good Subject to ſupport and defend.

May your Majeſty long continue the Sovereign of an enlightened, free, and proſperous Nation.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Radnor, has been preſented to the King by John Lewis, Eſq; Bailiff of that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Radnor.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Radnor, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our moſt grateful Thanks for the recent Mark of your Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs, manifeſted in your late Royal Proclamation.

Conſcious of the Bleſſings we enjoy under a Government which has long been the Envy and Admiration of the World, we cannot, as good Subjects, but hold in Abhorrence and Deteſtation the wicked Attempts of artful and deſigning Men, who, under the ſpecious Pretence of reforming the Conſtitution, are, in Fact, endeavouring to ſubvert it.

May your Majeſty long continue to reign over a free, loyal, and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, this 2d Day of July, 1792.

John Lewis, Bailiff.

The following Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town of Dudley and it's Neighbourhood, has been preſented to the King by Lord Viſcount Dudley, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, (Inhabitants of the Town of Dudley and it's Neighbourhood) humbly preſent our moſt grateful Acknowledgements for the truly paternal Solicitude at all Times evinced by your Majeſty for the Welfare of your People, and particularly by the late gracious Proclamation.

Conſcious of the peculiar Bleſſings and Advantages reſulting from our preſent Form of Government, we behold, with indignant Concern, the nefarious Meaſures which have been induſtriouſly uſed to ſubvert it, by thoſe who miſtake Licentiouſneſs for Liberty, and Anarchy for the ſacred Rights of Man.

That the Voice of Sedition may for ever be ſilenced; that the Spirit of Anarchy may be defeated in it's Aim; that all the Subjects of the Britiſh Empire may chearfully unite in promoting it's important Intereſts; and that your Majeſty may long reign over a free and loyal People, is, and ever will be, our moſt earneſt Wiſh and Prayer.

Whitehall, July 21.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts, beg Leave to acknowledge the freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of your Kingdoms, which is manifeſted by your late Royal Proclamation.

We are too ſenſible of the many Bleſſings for which we are indebted to the free and happy Conſtitution under which we live, not to reprobate, with becoming Indignation, thoſe inflammatory and ſeditious Writings, which have of late been circulated with ſuch Induſtry, for the Purpoſe of raiſing a Diſtruſt of your Government, and Diſſatisfaction with our National Eſtabliſhments. We conſider them as the more injurious to the Public Tranquillity, as they are calculated to flatter the Paſſions, and excite the Diſcontent of the more numerous Part of the Community, and give a deluſive Plauſibility to Principles which we conſider not only as ſubverſive of the Britiſh Conſtitution, but incompatible with any rational or permanent Syſtem whatever of Civil Government.

The Houſes of Parliament have in no Inſtance more faithfully repreſented to your Majeſty the Public Sentiments than by the Conſtitutional Confidence with which they have anticipated the Opinion, and engaged the Concurrence of the Nation to ſecond, with Zeal and Gratitude, ſuch Exertions as your Majeſty ſhall find neceſſary to repreſs all ſeditious Practices and Doctrines.

We receive with Confidence the gracious Promiſes of your Majeſty's utmoſt Endeavours to ſecure to us a Continuance of our preſent Proſperity, and adopt, with perfect Satisfaction, the Eulogium pronounced by your Majeſty upon the Conſtitution, "That it is the Source of legal and well-regulated Freedom."

Signed at the Requeſt, and on Behalf of the County Meeting, Matt. Humphrys, Sheriff of the County of Wilts.

[Tranſmitted by the Sheriff.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Worceſter.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Worceſter, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the profoundeſt Reſpect, and with our moſt grateful Acknowledgements for your Majeſty's paternal Care for your People, manifeſted in your late Royal Proclamation for diſcouraging and ſuppreſſing miſchievous and ſeditious Publications and Meetings.

We beg to aſſure your Majeſty that it is with infinite Concern we have perceived the wicked Attempts of turbulent Perſons to diſturb the National Happineſs and Tranquillity, by diſperſing among the People Writings of a dangerous Nature, tending to alienate their Affections from your Majeſty's Government, and from the very Form and Spirit of that glorious Conſtitution, which has long been the Boaſt of Engliſhmen and the Envy of ſurrounding Nations.

We are perſuaded that it is only by the careful Preſervation of that Conſtitution that we can hope to ſecure and perpetuate thoſe great Political Bleſſings, of which this Nation almoſt excluſively boaſts, and avoid thoſe dreadful Scenes of Outrage and Confuſion which muſt inevitably follow the Adoption of viſionary and incoherent Doctrines, ſubverſive of all Political Order and Subordination, and utterly impracticable in a poliſhed and civilized Society.

Under theſe Impreſſions, and while we experience ſuch ſingular Favours of Divine Providence, and and ſuch numberleſs Political Bleſſings, we deſire to expreſs our utmoſt Indignation at any Attempts (from whatever Motives they ariſe) to ſeduce and alienate the Public Mind from your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government; and we beg to aſſure your Majeſty that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, diſcourage, counteract, and ſuppreſs every inſidious or open Attempt to diſturb the National Peace and Security, and will endeavour to ſtrengthen and confirm in the Minds of the People their long-eſtabliſhed Regard and Affection for the Conſtitution of their Country in Church and State; under whoſe liberal and benign Influence they have long enjoyed all the Bleſſings of Civil and Religious Liberty, and which, we truſt, will be continued, in undiminiſhed Purity and Vigour, to the lateſt Poſterity.

[Tranſmitted by Fleetwood Parkhurſt, Eſq; Sheriff.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governor and Council of the Iſle of Mann.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor and Council of your Majeſty's Iſland of Mann, in Tynwald aſſembled, truly and moſt gratefully ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under the mild and juſt Reign of your Majeſty, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with Hearts filled with Sentiments of the pureſt Loyalty and warmeſt Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Government and Family.

We are, Sire, earneſtly ſolicitous to tranſmit, unimpaired, to our Poſterity, the Conſtitution handed down to us by our Anceſtors, and containing in itſelf every Power neceſſary to the Preſervation and Security of Liberty and Property, as Change of Times or Circumſtances may require, being an Emanation from that of Great Britain, under which Liberty the moſt pure, the moſt generous and manly, is proved by Experience to be, as beſt or only ſecured by good Government, intirely conſiſtent with Order the moſt perfect.

At a Time therefore when it is but too evident there are Men, inſidious as they are wicked and arrogant, who are endeavouring to ſubvert all Order, and that Conſtitution and Government, under which, with the Bleſſings of the Almighty on the virtuous and auſpicious Reign of your Majeſty, the Britiſh Empire, ſureſt Teſt of good Government, has proſpered to a Height of Wealth, of Grandeur and of Power, unknown before in the Annals of the World, we think it our indiſpenſable Duty to offer to your Majeſty, ever the Father of your People, and watchful to promote their beſt Intereſts, and to ſecure their Proſperity and Happineſs, the humble but ardently ſincere Tribute of our beſt Thanks, for the recent Inſtance of that paternal Care and Attention to preſerve to your People the Bleſſing they enjoy, manifeſted in the Royal Proclamation againſt wicked and ſeditious Publications. But judging, Sire, from our own Hearts, we truſt that, among all your Majeſty's good Subjects, there will ever be but one Mind, one Voice, one ſtedfaſt Determination, to ſupport your Majeſty in preſerving their happy and noble Conſtitution and Government, as by Law eſtabliſhed, from Innovations whatſoever; and it is with a Pleaſure, well founded as ſincere, we are moſt happy to aſſure your Majeſty, that in theſe we expreſs the Sentiments of all your Majeſty's People in this Iſle, who, however diſtant in Situation, or ſeparated in Condition, yet in Loyalty and Zeal of Attachment to the Perſon, Family and Government of their moſt gracious and beneficent Sovereign, yield not to any other Subjects on Earth, however circumſtanced, wherever placed.

[Tranſmitted by Lieutenant-Governor Shaw.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Keys of the Iſle of Mann, in Tynwald aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Keys, the Repreſentatives of your Majeſty's Iſland of Mann, moſt gratefully ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under the mild and juſt Reign of your Majeſty, beg Leave, Sire, to approach your Royal Throne with Hearts filled with Sentiments of pureſt Loyalty, and warmeſt Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government; and uniting with the reſt of your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, we declare our Diſapprobation of all ſeditious Writings and criminal Correſpondences, calculated to excite Tumult and Diſorder in your Dominions. We are earneſtly ſolicitous to tranſmit, unimpaired to our Poſterity, the Conſtitution handed down to us by our Anceſtors, which ſecures the Liberty and Happineſs of the People, and permits Improvement according to the Change of Times and of local Circumſtances.

We therefore think it, Sire, our indiſpenſable Duty at this Criſis to offer to your Majeſty the humble and moſt ſincere Tribute of our Thanks for the recent Inſtance of that paternal Care and Attention to preſerve to your People the Bleſſings they enjoy, manifeſted in your Proclamation for the ſuppreſſing ſeditious Publications and criminal Correſpondences, which may be productive of the moſt alarming Conſequences. And we truſt that all your Majeſty's Subjects, enjoying ſuch abundant Happineſs and Proſperity, under the juſt, mild and auſpicious Reign of your Majeſty, will chearfully unite in a firm Support of your Majeſty's Endeavors to preſerve the Government and Conſtitution of all your Dominions, as by Law eſtabliſhed, againſt every Attempt to ſubvert the good Order of Society. And it is, Sire, with a Pleaſure well-founded as ſincere, we aſſure your Majeſty, that in theſe we expreſs the Sentiments of all your Majeſty's Subjects in this iſle, who, in Loyalty and Zeal of Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Government and Family, will not yield to any in your Majeſty's Dominions.

By Order of the Houſe,
John Taubman, Speaker.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacon, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Peterborough, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude for the unwearied Attention of your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Preſervation of our excellent Conſtitution. It will ever be the Object of our moſt ardent Wiſhes to perpetuate, as far as in us lies, the Bleſſings of that Liberty which, under your Majeſty's gracious and juſt Government, we ſo happily enjoy. We declare our Abhorrence of every Attempt to looſen the Obligations of Law, or to alienate the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects from their Allegiance and Duty. We earneſtly pray, that God will be pleaſed to grant your Majeſty a long and proſperous Reign, ſecure in the loyal Attachment of a free, willing and affectionate People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Banff.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, highly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we and all your other Subjects enjoy in every Part of the extended Empire, from the ſpirited Exertions of your Government, we pray for the long Continuance of your Reign.

We humbly thank your Majeſty for the late Royal Proclamation, and beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will zealouſly ſupport the Principles of it, and conſider all the Authors of ſeditious Publications as Enemies to our happy and envied Conſtitution, and will do every Thing in our Power to bring them to juſt Puniſhment.

We alſo gladly embrace this Opportunity of moſt heartily congratulating your Majeſty on the brilliant Succeſs of your Royal Arms in the Eaſt Indies under the Command of Lord Cornwallis, and on the wiſe Meaſures purſued by your Majeſty's Servants, both at Home and Abroad, as to the Conduct of the National Affairs in that Quarter of the World, by which we have the ſtrongeſt Hopes that the Trade and Proſperity of this Kingdom will be greatly advanced, and its Peace permanently ſecured.

Signed by our Præſes, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Banff, July 9, 1792.

Fife, P.

[Tranſmitted by the Earl of Fife.]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Community, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Faverſham, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to return your Majeſty our moſt grateful Acknowledgments for your Royal Proclamation; and although we lament that the dangerous Doctrines which have been lately promulgated, and with no ſmall Induſtry diſſeminated, for the Purpoſe of ſubverting our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment, have rendered neceſſary this paternal Mark of your Majeſty's affectionate Care, we rejoice in the Opportunity of declaring our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

Happy in the Poſſeſſion of all that can render Life deſirable, it is our Duty to guard with Vigilance, and to preſerve with Ardour, the Conſtitution under which it is our Glory to be born.

Feeling, as we do, the Value of the Bleſſings it imparts, and conſcious that theſe can be preſerved only by a due Submiſſion to the juſt and equal Laws by which we are governed, we cannot but expreſs our Deteſtation of thoſe Principles, which, under the Pretence of holding out a purer Syſtem of Things, would ſubſtitute Anarchy for Order, Tyranny for Liberty, and Miſery for Happineſs.

Animated with theſe Sentiments, and urged by every Motive of Intereſt to maintain them, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that beholding with Pleaſure the general Triumph of Senſe over Sophiſtry, and of Reaſon over Folly, we ſhall not ceaſe, on our Parts, to prove ourſelves good Subjects and honeſt Citizens, and to give every poſſible Support to a Conſtitution founded in Wiſdom and upheld by Juſtice.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Whithorn.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of your ancient Burgh of Whithorn, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, in order to expreſs the deep Senſe of Gratitude we entertain for the great Care and Concern manifeſted towards your Subjects in your late gracious Proclamation.

We beg Leave to thank your Majeſty for this timely and ſalutary Meaſure, ſo wiſely adopted to put a Stop to thoſe ſeditious Publications and Writings, by wicked and deſigning Men, tending to ſubvert our preſent happy Conſtitution, by exciting a Spirit of Tumult and Sedition among the People, and a Diſtruſt of their legal Repreſentatives in Parliament; by by holding forth fictitious and inflammatory Grievances, and deluding them by visionary Speculations; and to inform your Majesty, that we consider ourselves called upon by our Duty, as well as in Obedience to your Royal Proclamation, to use every Effort for bringing the Authors and Abettors of such Writings to condign Punishment.

Sensible of the Happiness and Freedom we derive from your Majesty's just and mild Government, and convinced that the Peace and Prosperity of these Kingdoms depend, under Divine Providence, upon Obedience to the Laws and due Subordination amongst the various Orders of the Community, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it is our firm Resolution, to the utmost of our Power, to maintain the Authority of Government in it's full Force, and to promote a Spirit of Tranquillity among the People, and to inculcate the Necessity of a Submission to the Laws, in order to preserve, unimpaired, our glorious Constitution, the Envy of surrounding Nations.

That your Majesty may long sway the Sceptre over a free, a loyal, and a happy People, and that those who live under the Protection of your mild and equitable Government may be duly sensible of the Blessings they enjoy, is our sincere Prayer.
